

Miller & Rhoads.

Miller & Rhoads.

An Exhibition of French Voile and Silk Net Skirts

People were here early yesterday morning to see them—and the opinion of the first woman was the opinion of all—The finest dress skirts they ever saw at the prices—To-day (Saturday) will be the last chance to see these beautiful garments.

We can take your measure for one like them and have it for you in a short time.

New Spring Suits Begin at $10

Four styles at that price—two walking and two dress. Good material and well made. Norfolk Suit, Collared Blon, Venetian, neatly trimmed, and a Black Cheviot.

Almost all prices between ten and fifty. The best way to judge of their values is to let us show them to you.

Corsets For 39c.

But—and mark this, please—they are not thirty-nine cent corsets by any means. The lowest price for any of them, and from that up to $1.25.

First-class garments, but not new models, and mostly small sizes—only reason we've cut the price.

FOUR SEAMEN HELD AS DESERTERS

Will Be Sent Back to the Navy—Lincoln Sent to Grand Jury.

Four "sad sea dogs," otherwise able seamen, better known as marines, picked up their sea legs and tucked toward the throne upon which sat Justice John. "What's the matter with you fellows?" asked the Justice. "Don't you like the sea?"

"If you'll let us off, we'll go and see," said one of the bright fellows, as he took a hitch and a sidestep in his trousers.

"Well, you won't go to see until I say so, and I'm going to hold you until the 10th, anyway."

Then the four marines anchored back to the pen, where they folded up their sea legs again.

Charles Smith got gay on a street car and threatened to shoot J. G. Lafoon with a pistol; $10.

The grand jury will hear the evidence in the case of John Lincoln, colored, charged with hitting William Able with a bat.

Willie Allen was put under bonds for sixty days for taking coal belonging to the Chesapeake and Ohio.

Joseph Campodolico was said to have taken $16 belonging to Thomas McCarthy, but the whole matter turned out a mistake.

Green McAdoo, colored, who was arrested by Officer Wyatt as a fugitive from justice, was dismissed, the evidence not being strong enough.

Montgomery Davis got twelve months, under security, on the charge of taking $20 belonging to H. A. Burreck.

Lucinda Davis, colored, paid $2.50 for trespassing, cursing and abusing Julia Taylor.

The case of Meek Douglass, colored, charged with striking Maud Stewart, will be heard on the 15th.

BARTON HEIGHTS.

Miss Roberta Christian has returned to her home in Gaines Mill, after a visit to Mrs. W. C. Christian.

Miss Cassie Sale, of Caroline county, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Jeter, of Ladies' Mile road.

Mrs. E. E. Jones has returned home from a visit to Manchester.

Mrs. Loma Selly has recovered from a severe illness.

Mrs. Livingston has returned to her home in Louisville, Ky., from a visit to friends near the Seminary.

Miss Parish, who has been quite sick, is improving.

Mrs. Moore has returned to Yellow Tavern from a visit to friends in Luray.

Mr. P. C. Thompson, who has been quite sick in Florida, is improving.

Miss Bessie Cross is quite sick at her home in Chestnut Hill.

Miss Louise Briggs has returned to the East End after a visit to Mrs. W. G. Cosby.

Mr. Herndon, of Portsmouth, is the guest of his sister, of Ladies' Mile road. Miss Lucy Jordan has returned to her home in Lynchburg, after a visit to friends near Lakeside.

Miss Lucy Hill, of Norfolk, expects to return home this week, after a visit to friends in Brooklyn Park.

Mr. L. Satterfield, of Ohio, is visiting Mr. Calvin Satterfield.

Mr. Dodson, of Pocomoke, is visiting friends on the Heights.

Miss Kelly, who has been quite sick at her home, on Chestnut Hill, is able to be out.

Miss Saunders, of Norfolk, is visiting her uncle in North Carolina.

Mr. R. W. Taylor has returned from Norfolk.

Miss Mary Jones is visiting her aunt in Chesterfield.

An exciting game of base-ball was played at the Seminary Thursday evening between the Brookland Park and the Brook Road team.

The game was won by the Brookland Park boys by a home run by Mr. Riddin Wilkinson. The score stood at the close of the game, 7 to 6.

The batteries were as follows: Brookland Park—Winston and Vaughan; Brook Road—Thurmon and August.

Old Porter's Sudden Death.

Augustus Taylor, an aged negro of the old school, dropped dead at the South Railway Station about 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon. He had been employed at Ford's Hotel for twenty years or more, and was well known by the patrons of the place. Dr. Taylor pronounced death due to heart disease.

DR. LEGATO'S BODY BORNE TO ACCOMAC

It Was Accompanied by His Widow, Son, and Members of the Legislature.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.

The remains of Dr. George W. Le Cato, member of the Virginia Senate, who died Thursday night at New Ford's Hotel while in Richmond in attendance upon the session of the Senate, were taken to Accomac county yesterday afternoon.

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Le Cato, their son, Mr. Bernard Le Cato; the Senator's brother, Mr. L. Thomas Le Cato; Senators C. Harding Walker, D. Gardner Tyler, and J. Boyd Sears; Hons. Mathews, Nottingham and Hunley, members of the House of Delegates; Mr. Frank B. Watkins, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, in charge of the body; Rev. John T. Bosman, Mr. John H. Johnson and others, was taken away on the 4 o'clock train.

At Old Point connection was made with the steamer for Cape Charles City, and thence to Grangeville, to the residence of Dr. John E. Mapp, a relative of the deceased.

The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from Dr. Mapp's house, and the interment will be made in the burying ground of the Episcopal Church of that place. Governor McCreary ordered the flags upon the Capitol to be lowered to half mast and to remain in this position of mourning until after the funeral.

Many expressions of regret were heard yesterday.

This is the second member of the General Assembly who has died since the beginning of the present session, the first being Delegate W. B. Clarke, of Surry county.